

NOTICE OF A COMMUNITY MEETING FOR THE MALONE SERVICE COMPANY SUPERFUND SITE IN TEXAS CITY, TX
EXPLANATION OF SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE (ESD)

Comment period extended through February 5, 2016

PUBLIC MEETING

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) will hold an informational public meeting concerning the Malone Service Company Superfund Site (the Site) in Texas City, Texas. During the meeting an Explanation of Significant Difference (ESD) for the continued operation of the Site's underground injection wells will be discussed. This public meeting will be held at:

Nessler Civic Center, Surf Room
2010 5th Avenue North
Texas City, TX 77590

The public meeting is scheduled for Thursday, January 28, 2016, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to allow the EPA to explain the terms and conditions of the ESD and give interested parties an opportunity to ask the EPA questions. Representatives from the EPA and the Malone Cooperating Parties, the group conducting the cleanup, will also attend the meeting.

The EPA invites interested persons to attend the meeting and provide the Agency with their comments. The purpose of this Meeting is for the public to submit oral or written statements and data concerning the ESD. We request that oral comments on the Site provided during the public meeting be limited to five (5) minutes per person; this limit may be extended if time allows.

DOCUMENTS

Copies of the ESD and other Site documents are available for review at:
